Four Seasons Resort and Residences Jackson Hole

Four Seasons Resort and Residences Jackson Hole

Hotel Jackson

Hotel Jackson may only be a month old, but it is already impressing with its ability to combine western history and contemporary design with Jackson Hole's breathtaking natural setting. Guests will notice rustic touches throughout the hotel, from reclaimed barn wood to hand-painted metal, inspired by the branding iron and early tools of the ranchers and trappers. And the beauty of Jackson Hole is never more than a glance away thanks to views of the Grand Tetons. hoteljackson.com.

Hotel Terra

An eco-mountain luxury resort with sustainable practices, the award-winning Hotel Terra is LEED Silver certified, giving guests the chance to "play like a local" in Jackson Hole. The boutique hotel is nestled slopeside to Jackson Hole Mountain Resort, ensuring that powder-seekers are given the best ski experience while those in need of a little r-n-r are invited to chill in the infinity-edge pool, soak in the spa's rooftop hot tub or enjoy the healing properties of turmeric, lemongrass and Thai ginger during a signature herbal massage. hotelterrajacksonhole.com.

Teton Mountain Lodge & Spa

From five hot tubs and two pools to an award-winning spa and state-of-the-art fitness center, Teton Mountain Lodge & Spa, a four-diamond property, is home to just about every amenity an adventure traveler could need. At Spur Restaurant & Bar, guests unwind from a day of skiing or hiking with modern mountain cuisine and hand-crafted cocktails and then cozy up in their deluxe room, some of which include a gas fireplace, a furnished terrace and the ever-important ski-destination amenity, the boot dryer. tetonlodge.com.

Four Seasons Resort and Residences Jackson Hole

With a prime slope-side position at the base of Jackson Hole Mountain Resort one mile from Grand Teton National Park, Four Seasons Resort and Residences Jackson Hole is a ski-in, ski-out destination that exudes mountain luxury. The resort is beautifully decked in wood, stone, leather, earth tones and Native American motifs. While expert dining (with locally sourced ingredients like free-range buffalo and Idaho trout) and time at the spa will please the grown-up guests, there is plenty to occupy the kids once they take a break from the alfresco activities at the Kid's Club, featuring a pool table, foosball, video game stations and more. fourseasons.com/jacksonhole.

"Hotel Jackson is setting a new standard for luxury lodging in the town of Jackson and serves as the perfect launching point for both summer adventures and relaxation. Our curated oasis offers every modern luxury, all while connecting you directly and conveniently to world-class hiking, wildlife tours, fishing and both the Grand Teton and Yellowstone park systems. Hotel Jackson offers two unique dining destinations as well as access to some of Jackson Hole's best retail and restaurant experiences. Whether enjoying a huckleberry shake on the outdoor patio of Smokin' Iron or unwinding with a hand-crafted cocktail at Figs, Hotel Jackson offers you a daily opportunity to live inside a postcard moment." —Sadek Darwiche, Owner, Hotel Jackson
